MEMENTO TATTOO · 292 KING ST, NEWTOWN

A licensed studio, police and health inspected, with sterilisation that is tested rather than promised.

How a piece comes together.

01

A conversation

"Every client who sits in my chair starts in exactly the same place, with a conversation." Free, no obligation: phone, video, or at the studio.

02

Drawn for you

"Before I put pencil to paper, I want to know who you are." No pre-made sleeves, no templates. Freehand for Polynesian work.

03

The session

A deposit holds your date. Real custom work, drawn for you, freehanded and healed properly, takes real time.

04

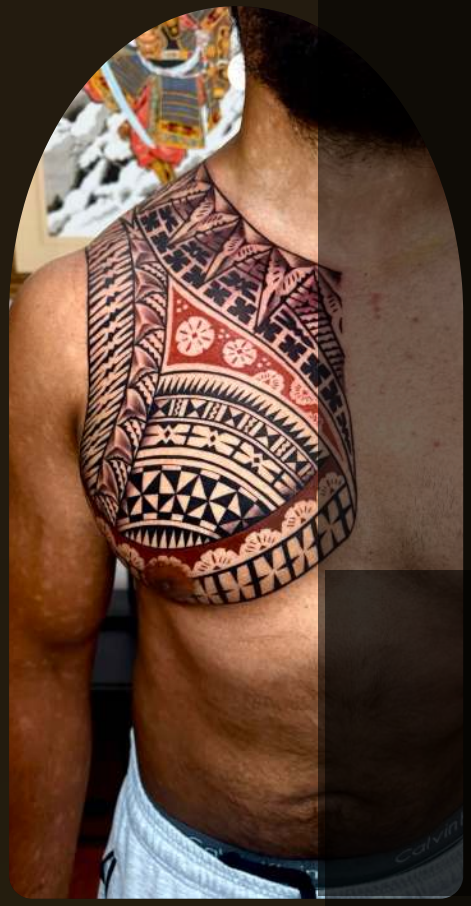

Recognises you

"The moment a client looks at their finished tattoo and recognises themselves in it. That's what I aim for every single time."

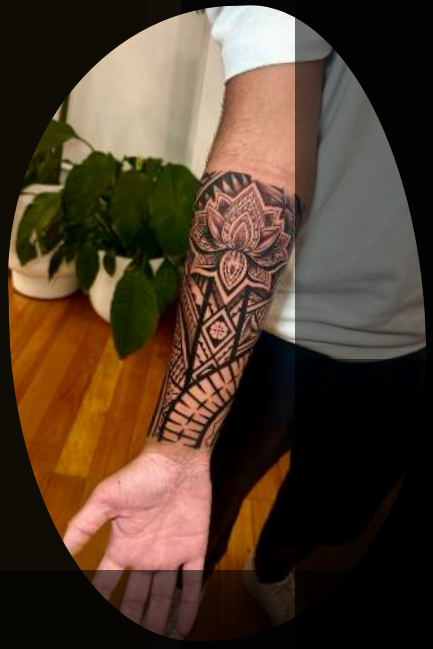

THE WORK · ONE

Polynesian and Fijian work.

Geometric banding, freehand mapped to the body. Fijian, Samoan, Tongan, Māori-influenced and wider Polynesian traditions, all given the same consult-first care.

BEFORE YOU ASK

A note on price.

Custom work is a A$1,300 day rate and a deposit holds your date, quoted clearly at the consult. Real custom work, drawn for you, freehanded, healed properly, takes real time. If a quote comes in far under every licensed studio in town, the honest question is what's being skipped. The full pricing guide is on the site.
